

Dave Barber has been the programmer for the Winnipeg Film Group Cinematheque since 1982. He has worked hard to develop an audience for the works of both emerging and senior Canadian filmmakers, both regional and nationally.

He has received several awards for his efforts including in "Special Jury Award" in 1999 at the Blizzards for Outstanding Achievement for contributions to film and video in Manitoba, an "Individual Award" for Outstanding Support of the Arts in Manitoba from the Manitoba Foundation For

The Arts in 2004 and the Winnipeg Arts Council's first ever "Making a Difference Award" in 2007. In 2013 he won the "Queen's Diamond Jubilee Award" for significant contribution to Canada and community of Canadians.

In 2013 he directed Will the Real Dave Barber Please Stand Up, a short 3:44 minute film in which Dave re-enacts a real life ceremony that resulted in his winning the "Queen's Diamond Jubilee Award". This played at the Hot Docs International Film Festival.

More recently he co-directed Tales From The Winnipeg
